

I Couldn't Help But Look

Fourteen was awkward
Man, I hated school
'Till that year the girls turned into women
And I turned into a lovesick fool
Look at all those curves
I couldn't help but swerve
From right to left
And left to right
And up and down went all my nerves

CHORUS:

I couldn't help but look
What can I say
God made women
But the devil tried to make me
Keep on lookin' back their way
I couldn't help but look

Now once you steal that first kiss
You'll never be the same
Right when you think she's the one
You go and call her the wrong name
She gives you one more try
You look her in the eye
Then you go and blow it all again
When some cute girl goes walkin by

CHORUS:

I couldn't help but look
What can I say
God made women
But the devil tried to make me
Keep on lookin' back their way

BRIDGE:

I finally tied the knot
20 years ago
When I'm tempted to turn my head
I finally learned to just say "no"

CHORUS:

I couldn't help but look
What can I saw
Every time the devil tried to make me
Keep on lookin' back their way
I can't help but look
I can't help but look
I can't help but look
Look away
Boy, ya better look away
Looked away
