

Grave Yard Shift

My eyelids so heavy
I'm haunted by the night
Can't stop these wheels from spinnin'
Workin' over time
I know I should be sleepin'
It's another 3 am
And I'm staring at the ceiling
With a cell phone in my hand
I've turned out the lights but not the switch
Here I go

CHORUS:
Graveyard shift

Is there anybody out there
Doing what I do
Tossing and turning
Feeling like a fool
So many worries
Trapped inside my head
The news man will feed you till' your eyes are blood stained red
The sun comes up so quick
Feelin' like I've been hit

CHORUS:
Graveyard shift

It's the radio I can't control
My eyes are doing time
It's the flashing television lights that started me tonight
I'm connected to the whole entire world
Addicted to this electronic sin
I put it down just to pick it up again
Punch me in

CHORUS:
Graveyard shift

Draggin' ass with coffee
Spillin' in my hands
Everyone's so perky
I can barely stand
I know I should be razor-sharp
All raring to go
I turn away so I can yawn
This day's gonna blow
I'm so whipped

CHORUS:
Graveyard shift

It's the radio I can't control
My eyes are doing time

It's the flashing television lights that started me tonight
I'm connected to the whole entire world
Addicted to this electronic sin
I put it down just to pick it up again
Punch me in

CHORUS:
Graveyard shift

BRIDGE:
As the dawn broke I fell into a dream
I was floatin' on a cloud over a stream
There was peace and quiet all around
Cut short by this familiar sound
*Beep beep beep beep*

It's the radio I can't control
My eyes are doing time
It's the flashing television lights that started me tonight
I'm connected to the whole entire world
Addicted to the ceiling trying to see
I put it down just to pick it up again
Punch me in

CHORUS:
Graveyard shift

Graveyard shift
And again and again and again
Graveyard shift
Graveyard shift
Graveyard shift
Graveyard shift
