

The harder I fought to be successful in business or as a husband and father the more I was reminded I'm a sinner and without God's grace through his son Jesus, I am nothing at all.

Movers & Shakers

There are movers and there are shakers
And the givers and the takers
And the million miles of empty hearts
In between

There are winners and there are losers
The beggars and the choosers
But when it's our time to go
We're all the same

CHORUS:

There's still time to call on Jesus
Yes, there's still time to say that name
And there's still time to beg forgiveness
No matter who you are
No matter what you've done
He loves us all the same

There are high tides and there are low tides
The good days and the bad
And when you're ridin' way up there Someone's lost everything they had

That's just the way God made us
There's nobody else to blame
So when you've hit rock bottom
You can still call that name

CHORUS:

There's still time to call on Jesus
Yes, there's still time to say that name
And there's still time to beg
forgiveness
No matter who you are
No matter what you've done
He loves us all the same

BRIDGE:

I used to say I was a self made man
I played by my own rules
But then my world came crashing down
I found I was a self made fool
But you can mend any broken heart
And make it all brand new
Thank You
Thank You

There are bar rooms and there are steeples
As far as the eye can see
But when it's finally closin' time
Where will you be?

Some day you might bury
The ones that you love most
When you hear that last call
Will it be the heavenly host?

CHORUS:

There's still time to call on Jesus
Yes, there's still time to say that name
And there's still time to beg
forgiveness
No matter who you are
No matter what you've done
He loves us all the same
