

Deb, I will forever feel helpless knowing we were under the same roof and I had no idea what pain you were suffering. I pray to God for your healing and I love you forever. - Chuckie

Nobody Knows

Little Joe
He sits and stares
Third Grade class
He daydreams there
Children laugh
The teacher keeps calling
his name

They don't know
The night he had
The angry shouts
His mom and dad
He keeps it all a secret
Only he knows the pain

CHORUS:
When nobody knows but you
Nobody knows
They don't stand in your shoes
The burdens are way too much
For you
When nobody knows but you

There's Old Man Smith
His mind is gone
He's stoppin' cars
They shout and honk
He trembles wonderin'
How he got out here

What they don't know
Is he's alone
She passed away
The years have flown
She's the one thing he remembers
Very well

CHORUS:
When nobody knows but you
Nobody knows
They don't stand in your shoes
The burdens are way too much
For you
When nobody knows but you

Debra Lynn
Precious girl
Those big blue eyes
Light up the world

She's always there
When your world is falling apart
But something changed
We did not know
He stole her pride
He broke her soul
Now she carries daddy's secrets
In a tattered heart

CHORUS:

When nobody knows but you
Nobody knows
They don't stand in your shoes
The burdens are way too much
For you
When nobody knows but you

BRIDGE:

Oh, Dear Lord,
How do I pray
Lift them up from the darkness
Take their pain away

CHORUS:

Lord, nobody knows but You
So won't you help me
Stand in these shoes
No burden is ever too much
For You
And nobody knows but You
Lord, nobody knows but You
