

Why Not Lyrics

Like a rockstar I jumped off that plane
Pretty señoritas dancing in my brain
Blew a kiss to the ocean
Put my Ray Bans on
Said the hell with work
It's time to have fun
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

CHORUS:
Come on now just let go
Dammit you're in Mexico
Raise your glass and let's have a toast to why not
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

Met a few strangers
Did a few shots
Tequila without lime makes me think I'm hot
Crawled up in the pool bar and took it all in
Uno mas cerveza again and again
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

CHORUS:
Come on baby just let go
Dammit were in Mexico
Raise your glass and let's have a toast to why not Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

Got a little sunburnt
Got over served
Made a few waves and looked at those curves
Chilled in the hammock forgot about time
Shook my booty in the Congo line
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

Got a little fat down in Mexico
Thought of my boss so I tossed my phone
The job will be there when I get back
Nothing left to do so it's time to get jacked
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

Come on down, just let go
Dammit you're in Mexico
Raise your glass and lets have a toast to why not
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?

Here's to why not
Why not?
Why not?
Why not?
